Let us pamper you with two night's accommodations at Emerald Lake Lodge, located in beautiful Yoho National Park. You'll follow in the footsteps of legendary guide, Tom Wilson, who discovered this magical location more than 100 years ago. With its century-old fireplaces and an oak bar salvaged from an 1890's Yukon saloon, there is no shortage of history within these walls. Your Superior Guestroom, located in one of 24 cabin-style buildings, features a field stone fireplace, private balcony and feather duvet to snuggle under.

You'll arrive at Emerald Lake Lodge on Friday afternoon and meet Ward Cameron, an award-winning interpretive guide, author and professional photographer.

Use Friday evening to plan your guided hike on Sunday with Ward, based on your physical abilities and personal interests. Ward will tailor your experience to your needs with a focus on nature, geology, flora, fauna or how to take better pictures!

Saturday is your "Golden Day". You'll spend the morning at Kicking Horse Mountain Resort visiting the Grizzly Bear Refuge, soaring up over 4,000 vertical feet in the sightseeing gondola, and enjoy your Sky Lunch at the summit!

After your adventure - packed morning, you'll be whisked away on a Columbia River Safari - a guided Jet Boat tour on the last free flowing section of the Columbia River.

Remember to take lots of photos of your journey with your brand new K10D Pentax Camera courtesy of The Camera Store, in Calgary.
